

United States District Court
District of Columbia

Elijah Junaid

Plaintiff

vs.

United States District Court

Defendant

Case No.: 4:25-CV-0297/DRZ

ORDER SUSPENDING ATTORNEY FROM PRACTICE

Upon review of the record and the circumstances of this case, it has come to the Court's attention that the attorney representing the defendant in this matter has engaged in misconduct warranting immediate discipline. Specifically, the attorney has failed to fulfill their professional obligations, resulting in the default of their client and causing a significant disruption to the proper administration of justice in this matter. Pursuant to Section 9 of the 2024-51 SCOTUS Administrative Order regarding disciplinary actions taken by judges, the Court finds that immediate action is required to maintain the integrity of the proceedings and to ensure compliance with the ethical duties required of attorneys practicing before this Court.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The attorney representing the United States District Court, E_xagle, is temporarily suspended from practicing law before this Court for a period of seven (7) days effective immediately, commencing from the date of this order.
2. The Court directs the Clerk of this Court to immediately transmit this order to the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States for further review under the applicable rules of attorney discipline.
